Greenhouse Worker Worksheet

Name: __________________ Date:_________

1. The potential for pesticide exposure for greenhouse workers is high because ______________________

2. The most common route of exposure to pesticides is by a. Mouth  c. Lungs
   b. Skin    d. Eyes

3. T  F  The only means of pesticide exposure in a greenhouse is by handling treated plants.

4. Restricted Entry Interval is the
   a. specific time when a pesticide application is being made
   b. time (in hours) that must pass before a worker can enter a treated area
   c. amount if time during which a pesticide can kill a pest
   d. length of time that treatments must be posted

5. Information on pesticide applications and safe re-entry dates and times are posted (select all that are correct)
   a. on the entry door of the area to be treated
   b. on the door of the pesticide storage area
   c. on the bulletin board near the greenhouse office
   d. at the Block and Barrel

6. T  F  If you are a trained greenhouse worker, you can enter any area posted with a Danger – Pesticides – Keep Out sign.

7. T  F  No one should eat, drink, or use tobacco products in any greenhouse.

8. Chronic effects of pesticide exposure appear _____ after exposure
   a. almost immediately
   b. after a delay of many years
   c. never appear

9. T  F  The symptoms of pesticide poisoning are very distinct and different from any other type of illness.

10. Pesticide labels and Material Safety Data Sheets of products used in the greenhouse are available to you at
    a. UK Med Center
    b. Greenhouse office
    c. Office of College Dean
    d. Campus Police headquarters